A 17th Century fortified farm which in the past used to provide a home for King's officials who used to command a wolf hunting team. Restored with care into a Maison d'Hôtes (Bed and Breakfast) by Laurence and Philippe Chaplain, this is a welcoming place. We invite you to discover the magnificent countryside views of the Limousin and the Périgord, where calm and the beauty of nature will be your companions.

Charm

The Bed and Breakfast opens onto an established, 2 hectare park, where one of the oldest redwood trees in the area reigns.

Character

The very comfortable bedrooms, all decorated with a personal touch, are a mark of serenity for calm and peaceful nights.

Refinement/Elegance

Our copious breakfasts and our evening meals* are served in a rural atmosphere in the garden or near the open fire in the living room

*(evening meals by reservation)
