La Roseraie Bed and Breakfast is situated in Rochechouart, a small town in the Limousin region, not far from Limoges. There is a lot to do in the area thanks to its rich nature and culture.

La Roseraie is a 4-century old house of a very special kind. The large mansion still has its original wooden staircase which leads to 3 spacious guestrooms, each with a sitting area. The rooms with queen-size beds are antique furnished and each has a stylish bathroom, with wash-stand, shower, and toilet. The largest room has an extra antique bed. Breakfast and dinner are served in the enclosed rose garden behind the house or in the dining room with wooden panels.
